STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED]
ORDER MODIFYING CONDITIONS OF
RELEASE TO REMOVE CUSTODIAL CONDITION

STIPULATION

Defendant Joseph Carozza has been on pretrial release since his initial appearance before the magistrate court on September 23, 2010. Dr. Carozza resides in New Jersey. As a condition of his release, Dr. Carozza was ordered to remain in the custody of his then-fiancée, Arlin Yeger.

Dr. Carozza and Ms. Yeger have separated, and Ms. Yeger has accordingly requested that she be relieved of her custodial obligations. Given Dr. Carozza's compliance with his release conditions over the last 18 months, United States Pretrial Services in New Jersey has recommended that the custodial condition be removed from the bond. United States Pretrial Services in San Francisco concurs with this recommendation. The government has no objection.

1           Accordingly, the parties agree and stipulate that Dr. Carozza's conditions of release should
2 be modified to remove the condition requiring that he reside in the custody of Arlin Yeger. The
3 parties further agree and stipulate that all other conditions of release should remain in effect.

4           IT IS SO STIPULATED.
